About Blackbullion

Blackbullion is the financial wellbeing platform and app equipping students with money skills for life. The platform also houses the UK's largest hub of support funds, scholarships and grants for students.

We partner with over 60 universities and colleges across the UK, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa to proactively support student financial wellbeing, optimise funds management processes and save staff time. Over £20 million has been given to students through our multi award-winning platform to date.
